

22nd Annual Boulder County Ecosystem
“Recovery and Resiliency! Preparing for the Future”
March 14, 2015
5201 St. Vrain Road, Longmont

8:30- 9:00 Registration

9:00 - 9:05: Welcome and Announcements. Steve Jones, Boulder County Nature Association.

9:05 - 9:35: "Forward Directions/Problems for the Future." John Mack, National Park Service.

9:35 - 10:05: "Blackfooted Ferret Reintroduction at Soapstone Ranch." Daylon Figgs, Fort Collins Natural Areas Department.

10:05 - 10:35: "Peregrine Falcon Recovery in Boulder County." Will Keeley, Boulder Open Space and Mountain Parks.

10:35 - 11:00 Break

11:00 - 11:30: "Ute Ladies'-tresses Orchid Habitat Management: Survival Strategies for a Threatened Species." Lynn Riedel, Boulder Open Space and Mountain Parks.

11:30 - 12:00: "Rediscovering (Again) Colorado's State Fish and What to Do Next?" Andrew Martin, University of Colorado-Boulder.

12:00 - 1:00 Complimentary Lunch

1:00 - 1:30: "Lynx Re-introduction Program." Jake Ivan, Colorado Parks and Wildlife Mammals Research Section.

1:30 - 2:00: "Recent Establishment of Bald Eagle Nesting Populations in Boulder County: Wintering and Nesting History and Discussion of Our Changing Landscape." Steve Jones, BCNA, and Susan Spaulding, Boulder County Parks and Open Space.

2:00: Closing Remarks by Megan Bowes; Holly Near's "The Souls are Coming Back" video.